Applications for Suginami Municipal Elementary and Junior High Schools

[Contact] School Affairs Section

Children of foreign nationality residing in Suginami City who wish to enter one of the city's municipal elementary schools from April 2023 must apply. Children currently attending one of the municipal elementary schools who wish to proceed to a municipal junior high school after graduation in March 2023 must also make an application. To apply, visit the School Affairs Section (6F East Wing, Suginami City Office) with documentation identifying the student's name, address and date of birth (e.g. health insurance certificate) in September or later.

The school will be determined by the Suginami City Board of Education according to the residential address.

For Guardians of Children Attending International Schools

[Contact] General Affairs Subsection, Management Section, Resident Affairs Division

Suginami City offers subsidies to reduce the burden of school fees and other related expenditures for guardians of children attending international schools.

[Eligibility]

Applicants must fulfill all the following eligibility criteria:

- 1. Have children at the age for receiving compulsory education, who are attending international schools accredited under the School Education Act.
- 2. The children and guardians must have a residential address registered in Suginami City, and be living in the same household.
- 3. The children, or the father or mother of the children, cannot be of Japanese nationality.
- 4. The guardians are paying for the school fees.
- 5. For guardians with a higher income, the amount obtained by subtracting the deductions listed in Table 2 from one's income (*) in 2021 (January to December) must be below the income cap listed in Table 1.
  - * For those who have employment income or miscellaneous income (restricted to income related to public pensions, etc.), the amount obtained by subtracting 100,000 yen from that total income.

[Application period] [Application method]

September 1 to 30 (No applications accepted past this date)

[Application method] This application is for the first half of the year. Each school has different periods for the first half of the year and application procedures, so please inquire for details. Please check with your child's school to find out if it is an international school accredited under the School Education Act.

[Amount of subsidy] 7,000 yen per month x No. of months during the first half of the year for which you paid tuition fees

Table 1: Income cap

No. of dependents (based on tax laws)	Income cap
0	6.22 million yen
1	6.60 million yen
2	6.98 million yen
3	7.36 million yen
4 or more	Thereafter, increase of 380,000 yen per dependent

* Add 60,000 yen per person to the income cap for spouses who are eligible for deductions for the elderly, or elderly dependent relatives.

Table 2: Amount of deductions from income

Category of deduction	Amount of deduction
Uniform deduction	80,000 yen
Deduction for working students	270,000 yen
Deduction for widows/widowers (deemed applicable)	270,000 yen
Special deduction for widows (deemed applicable)	350,000 yen
Deduction for persons with disabilities (per person)	270,000 yen
Special deduction for persons with disabilities (per person)	400,000 yen
Deduction for contributions such as miscellaneous, medical expenses, mutual aid for small-scale enterprises	Equivalent amount of deductions

For those who are enrolled in Suginami Ward's National Health Insurance System

A system is available for exemption from national health insurance premiums for FY2022 due to reduced income caused by the effects of COVID-19.

Exemption of National Health Insurance Premiums

(1) Requirements for Eligible Households

- 1. The household's primary income earner (individual with the highest income in the household) died or was seriously injured as a result of COVID-19.
- 2. The household's primary income earner expects to see a reduction in business income, real estate income from forestry, or salary income in 2022 (hereinafter 'business income') as a result of COVID-19 and items (a) through (c) below apply
  - (a) The decrease in business income (after deducting insurance payments, or amounts paid as compensation for damages, etc.) is expected to be at least three-tenths of business income earned during 2021.
  - (b) Total income during 2021 must be less than 10 million yen
  - (c) Total other income (besides the business income for which a reduction is expected) in 2021 must be 4 million yen or less
  - O The exemption will be between 20% and 100%, depending on total income during 2021.
  - O Those who are the primary income earner of the household, and who have become eligible for deduction of national health insurance premiums for involuntarily unemployed persons (who fall under the category of specially insured person), are ineligible for this exemption. However, you may be eligible if you expect to see a decrease in business income (in addition to a decrease in salary) for reasons other than involuntary unemployment.

(2) National Health Insurance Premiums Eligible for Exemption

National Health Insurance premiums for FY2022 that are ordinarily due to be collected between April 1, 2022, and March 31, 2023 (in the case of special collections, the pension benefit payment date for which the special collection applies)

(3) Application Details

The deadline for applying for the exemption is March 31, 2023 (as a general rule, applications must be sent through the post). Please contact the National Health Insurance Eligibility Subsection, National Health Insurance and Pension Section, or refer to Suginami City's website to obtain the necessary documents and application forms. Please inquire regarding insurance premiums that are levied in FY2022 but are equivalent to premiums for FY2021.
